VOL. XXXIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1905.

NO. 72.

HUSTONVILLE.

Miss Alice Drye was at home Sunday from Danville.

Drilling for gas at Mt. Salem continues with good prospects of a strike. About $1,000 worth of turkeys were sold in the West End last week at 12c on foot.

If you want to see something real pretty, take a peep at S. D. Yowell's China display.

Rev. S. B. Lander preached two excellent sermons at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

The Dinwiddie cottage is nearing completion and will be a comfortable home for some family.

G. W. Burton is back from Cincinnati where he sold a car load of hogs and one of cattle at good prices.

John G. Lynn bought of James N. Cash 1,500 bushels of millet seed for May delivery at a good price.

Mr. Owen McIntyre, the indefatigable outside man of the Danville News, spent Saturday here gathering up news, etc.

With three saloons our people should not want for anything in the drink line. T. J. Bell is the last to open a bar-room here.

John G. Lynn and wife are delighted with the West End people, who they say have been exceedingly kind to them in every way.

Rev. S. B. Lander, Prof. Rice S. Eubank and others were guests at a splendid 6 o'clock dinner at Mr. and Mrs. John Dinwiddie's a few evenings since.

Mrs. Dr. Fowler was here Saturday. Judge Laff Sharp, of Liberty, passed through returning from Louisville, where he bought a large very stock of goods.

Judge William Myers and Dr. J. C. Barker, big holders of Beaver Creek oil stock, tell us that oil still flows from their wells and that the future of their holdings grow brighter and brighter.

A letter from Miss Mollie Hopper stated that she and her father had arrived in Southern California, where they will spend the winter. She is delighted with the climate on the golden coast.

Charles Wheeler's Emporium is doing such a thriving business that more clerks have been added. Mrs. John A. Blain and Miss Effie Sandridge now assist Misses Maggie Campbell and Aria Wright.

Sandy T. Carpenter has the biggest cushion that has been raised in the West End in years. It is 36 inches long, 36 inches in circumference and weighs 32 pounds. Show a bigger one and get the I. J. three months free.

A. B. C. Dinwiddie, Hustonville's clever liveryman, is adding new horses and rigs every few days and still he can hardly supply the demand for turn-outs. If he isn't getting rich there is no money in the livery business.

Rufus Lipps is running the Hustonville Roller Mills alone while his father is serving his county as a juror in the Carter case. "Rufe" is equal to the emergency, however, and keeps the "lid on tight," as Teddy would say.

J. G. Weatherford & Co. are doing the big business they deserve and their store is always crowded. An advertisement now and then in the INTERIOR JOURNAL has proven money well spent with them. They are also doing considerable fence advertising just now.

Rural Free Delivery Route No. 2 will start up Dec. 1, with Walter Carson carrier and W. P. Carson substitute. The route is down Bradfordsville pike to foot of knob down by Neeley's Gap, down Brush Creek to Celeste, thence Liberty pike at Steps, up Liberty pike to Winter Wright's, back by Mrs. Jennie Carpenter's to Hustonville.

Our people generally feel sad at losing Mr. C. T. Bohon and his good family from our midst. This section never had a better citizen than this clever gentleman, who has just cast his lot with the people of Marion county. That he and his may live long and prosper is the sincere wish of our people, irrespective of size, color, age or political affiliation.

A fairly good crowd attended James Frye's sale Saturday afternoon, but the prices realized were not satisfactory in all cases. Mr. Frye and his excellent family will move to Lexington in a few days and thus Hustonville will lose some of its very best citizens. It is sincerely hoped that Mr. F. will make enough money in a few years and return to his old home, where he will be received with open arms.

Hustonville claims the best horse market in this section of the blue grass, i. e. more good horses are raised and sold here than any place of similar size. It is also the home of some splendid sires, two of which are known all over Kentucky—Galton, W. M. Dodd's great son of Gambetta Wilkes, and Dignity Dare, the best son of Chester Dare, and owned by D. Spilly Carpenter. Thousands of dollars worth of their colts are sold yearly, over $4,000's worth of the latter's having changed hands since Jan. 1. Two of them sold for $1,600 only a few months ago.

J. W. Allen and Lud Evans returned Saturday from Green River where they caught 15 bass weighing from two to four pounds.

Master Francis Weatherford, the boy organist of the Presbyterian church here, is the coming artist of his charming profession and is destined to rank with the masters. He must be heard to be properly appreciated.

The Katie Williams Comedy Co., with 12 people, will hold the boards at Alcorn's Opera House on Nov. 27, 28 and 29 at popular prices. Secure your seats at S. D. Yowell's now and avoid the rush to see one of the best companies on the road.

An effort will be made to have the next meeting of the National Fox Hunters' Association held here. Their meetings are attended by members from all over the country and as a rule are a high class of people. Our country is admirably adapted to the sport and is well supplied with foxes. Our hotels are second to none and a hospitable people will welcome them in our midst.

George Hicks and family, of near Mt. Salem, have moved to Burnside, where he has secured a good position. Barnes Wearen and wife are spending a week in our city. Mrs. J. W. Hoskins and the Misses Cunningham, of Powers' store section, were among the numerous shoppers here last week. Charles Lutes and family have moved to the Harry Baughman farm. John Grubbs has rented the James Frye farm for next year. W. D. Stagg and family, who have ably managed the Exchange Hotel at Liberty for several years, will move to the Logan property and take advantage of our graded school. We extend to them a cordial welcome.

Her many friends are glad to see Miss Katherine Alcorn out again. She was ill with typhoid fever for a month or more. Miss Lora Bohon has had as her guest for several days Miss Mabel McWhorter, of Crab Orchard. They are both students at Stanford Male and Female Seminary. George D. Weatherford and "Willie Doc" Drye are at Russell Springs, the former for his health and the latter to hunt. Mr. Weatherford has been troubled with rheumatism since his spell of fever. A. Jerry Adams and Howard Camnitz went to Taylor county to hunt birds, but they saw so many "posted" farms they returned next day with no game.

Mrs. D. J. Newburn spent a few days in Danville. Miss Minnie Dinwiddie, who with her sister, Miss Mattie Dinwiddie, is doing well with her boarding house at 305 West Chestnut, Louisville, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dinwiddie. Lincoln county people should bear in mind this splendid place to stop while in the Falls City. Mrs. Mary Jones, of Lebanon, is with friends here.

CHURCH MATTERS.

E. L. Morgan, formerly of Lexington, now new Police Judge of Lawton, O. T., will leave the law to become a Methodist minister.

The Methodists are doing a great work. Missionaries of the American church speak no fewer than 27 languages. There are 5,000 of these workers and 150,000 Christians under them.

The revival meeting which has been in progress at Mt. Pleasant Baptist church, in Jessamine county, for the past two weeks, conducted by Dr. J. F. Williams, and Rev. J. T. Betts, has closed. There were 50 conversions as a result of the meeting.

There have been 11 additions to the M. E. Church, South, and the meeting has been a great blessing to many christians. Rev. Grinstead is still preaching with great susceptibility at 2:30 and 7 p. m. each day. A number are to be baptized and received into the church Sunday evening.—Jessamine Journal.

The Goebel Monument Commission held a meeting at Frankfort and adjourned without taking action further than extending nine months the time of Charles F. Neuhause, of New York, sculptor, to make the model. The bust presented was only four and one-half feet high, while the commission has directed a life-size statue.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints, and is the only remedy that will cure chronic diarrhoea. Every bottle is warranted. For sale by all druggists.

Following the old-fashioned style of football, Yale gave Princeton a 23 to 4 beating, the worst in many years, but the Princeton team had the satisfaction of breaking Yale's clear record by a beautiful 43 yard drop kick by Tooker.

George Larkin, who was in the shoe business in Mt. Sterling for many years and recently died there, told a man on his death bed that his name was Patrick McMurray, and that in his youth, 25 years ago, he had killed in Detroit a man who had betrayed his (McMurray's) fiancée.

Fred Fleck, an old locomotive engineer of the Pennsylvania road, says he has received a letter from Andrew Carnegie inclosing a check for $1,000 to pay for a luncheon years ago when he was riding with the engineer. Mr. Carnegie, it appears, was ravenously hungry and gladly dined on the contents of Fleck's dinner pail. He has now paid for that meal.

PUNY CHILDREN.

Words of Interest to Every Mother in Stanford.

"Surely mothers are not to blame for that which they cannot help," said Mr. Penny, of Penny's Drug Store, our well-known druggist, during a recent interview, "but when we see so many thin, pale-faced and puny children on our streets we cannot help feeling that mothers are to blame, and we wish we could tell every mother in Stanford what Vinol will do for her children."

Vinol is not a patent medicine, but it contains in a highly concentrated form all the strength-creating and body-building elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without grease or oil. It does not upset the stomach like old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, and its taste is so delicious that children love it.

Vinol strengthens the most delicate stomach, makes rich, red blood, builds strong bone structure, creates hard, firm flesh tissue and rosy-cheeked, sturdy children are the inevitable result.

Mrs. Jennie Perse, of Mansfield, Ohio, says that her little boy had over-studied and was so run down that he was a mere shadow. Vinol made him a strong, well boy in a remarkably short time.

Mr. Penny, of Penny's Drug Store, says, "For both children and adults Vinol is the greatest strength creator, body builder, and health-restorer we have ever sold and we will gladly refund the money paid for it in every case where it fails to give satisfaction." Penny's Drug Store.

A report from Knox county says James McNabe shot and killed his son, who was drunk and was threatening to exterminate the family.

The three-year-old daughter of John Burdette, of Marion, caught fire and was burned to death before assistance could reach her. Her dress caught fire from a grate.

George Sherk, an employe of the Somerset Electric Light Company, was struck by a pipe from the engine and instantly killed. He was attempting to shut off the engine when killed.

George Hunn and J. L. Rose, of Shelby City, have leased the new roller mill at that place from Mr. W. H. Hogan. The mill is now completed and will begin operation next week as The Shelby City Roller Milling Co.

"Aunt" Judah Atkins, the oldest woman in Kentucky, died at her home in this city, at the age of 120 years, says a Danville dispatch. She was a servant in the home of Isaac Shelby, the first Governor of Kentucky, when he began his career as Chief Executive at Lexington in 1792.

The Advocate learns, not from an official source, but from pretty good authority, that the Southern Railway has decided to open the Danville extension for passenger service on December 1. The Cincinnati Southern is preparing a new time card to conform to the Southern Railway schedule, and this in a measure confirms the report that the date for opening the new line has really been definitely determined upon.—Advocate. The Queen & Crescent will double its track from Somerset to Oakdale.

D. Taylor, of Madison county, has returned from a visit that has consumed more than two years. He has nine children living in the States of Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Texas. He started from home two years ago in a buggy and drove the entire distance, from one State to another, paying each child a visit of two months or longer, until he had been to see them all. Then he drove back to Kentucky, the entire trip covering thousands of miles. Mr. Taylor stated that he was 70 years of age and had 27 grandchildren. He looks young for his age and is very vigorous.—Harrodsburg Herald.

"AW FERGIT IT".

Don't coddle up a woe,
Don't think about your foe.

"Fergit it."

It only makes you worry,
And keeps you in a flurry.

"Fergit it."

Don't talk of your disaster,
It makes the tears flow faster.

"Fergit it."

It only keeps you weeping,
And hinders you from sleeping.

"Fergit it."

Don't talk of your mishap,
It's only one more rap.

"Fergit it."

It only can annoy,
And your peace of mind destroy.

"Fergit it."

No Case of Pneumonia on Record.

We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. It cures coughs and colds perfectly, so do not take chances with some unknown preparation which may contain opiates, which cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Penny's Drug Store.

A young book-keeper who had not been many years married carefully laid down a piece of bread the other night and said to his wife: "I wish you could make bread such as mother used to make." The young wife smiled and remarked in a voice that did not tremble: "Well, John, I wish that you could make the 'dough' that father used to make." A hush as silent as death fell so suddenly that John almost lost breath, and the bread and dough question hasn't come up for family discussion since.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the remedy for coughs and colds. Penny's Drug Store.
